FAQs

Will funeral homes accept these caskets?

Yes they will. The Federal Trade Commission ruled that funeral homes are required to and must agree to use caskets bought elsewhere. Also, they may not charge a surcharge or handling fee to those who wish to supply their own casket.

Will the Abbey have a casket or urn when I need it?

We will always have caskets and urns in stock. Our goal is to be ready to meet your need. When the time arrives, simply contact us and we will deliver your casket to your designated funeral home. In-state shipping is included.

Two day out-of-state shipping is $600.

Am I able to purchase my casket in advance?

Yes. Please call 985-867-5161 or email casketpreplan@sjasc.edu.

What are the dimensions of the caskets?

The Traditional caskets are 17 3/4 inches high, 29 inches wide (handle to handle), 23 3/4 inches interior, and 82 inches long. The Monastic casket is 16 inches high, 25 1/2 inches wide (handle to handle), 22 3/4 inches interior, and 79 1/2 inches long.

Cemetery Plots

Every year the monks bless the cemetery following the All Souls' Day Mass in November.
